A Message From The Minister

I was recently reflecting on the idea that 'It is not what we want that makes us happy but wanting what we have'.

Christmas is often a time of wanting, it should be a time of happiness too. Sometimes though, when what we want just doesn't come to be, it can lead to unhappiness, we are discontented with our situation, those around us or even ourselves. Maybe the trick is wanting what we have, not because we are lazy or apathetic but because what we do have is often sufficient and a desire for more often brings the very opposite of what we might have hoped for.

You may have read the recent story of the Canadian couple Allen and Violet Large, both in their 70's who won the equivalent approximately seven million pounds on the lottery and then proceeded to give it all away, they saw the need or 'want' of local charities and organisations and gave it to them. They said that having that amount of money was 'a big headache' and saw that there were those who had bigger needs than themselves. An amazing story. You may wonder why they did the lottery at all, maybe that was part of the process that allowed them to see that happiness does come from wanting what you already have.

As Christmas comes and goes we might reflect on those ancient peoples who wanted a 'Messiah', someone to come and save them in a way that they wanted. Of course the Christian story reminds us that the Messiah (literally meaning 'Christ') was God sending his own Son to the world, God 'wanted' us to know what he was like. So what was Jesus, the Messiah, the Christ like? Well again the Bible tells us that he met the needs (wants) of those he encountered: he was: forgiving, merciful, compassionate, inclusive, honest, generous, loving, ...

I am not sure what you 'want' this Christmas or New Year. Maybe those attributes of God found in Jesus Christ, will meet all of our wants; wanting love and mercy and forgiveness and to be wanted are the gifts God gives not only at Christmas time but for all time, and it doesn't rely on a lottery.

Yours, in Christ Mark Gilborson

Christmas Card Tree 2010

In the past, to save sending everyone at church a Christmas card, we have had a Christmas Card Tree. The idea is that you put a Christmas card to everyone at the church on the Christmas Card Tree, and then place a donation in the box for The Women's Network of The Methodist Church. For the next two years, they have set up a project to support Methodist Homes for the Aged focusing on Dementia.

For further information please see Beryl Violet or the notice board in the church hall.

Wonford Youth Club

There has been a youth club meeting at Wonford church for over 20 years. At the moment, we have on average of 38 young people coming along each week. Most of these children come from the surrounding estate, and some have been known to turn up half an hour early for their club each week!

Our younger youth club is for children between 7 and 11 (school years 3 to 6) and they meet between 7pm and 8pm. After a quick break, the older club starts for young people at secondary school, aged 11 and upwards. This goes on until 9.15pm. We are fortunate in having a loyal team of volunteers, including three college students who very kindly give up their time helping out each week. However, we are always on the look out for new people, so if you are able to help out on a Wednesday evening - it doesn't have to be each week, just as and when you can make it - please speak to Ruth Bradley on a Sunday morning; your help will be gratefully received.

We have tended to use a tried and tested approach when choosing the activities on offer. Our pool and table tennis tables remain very popular fixtures. Regular art and craft ideas also go down very well, and there are also a selection of board games made available. Having said this, Paul tends to be the most popular person; especially around 7.30pm when his tuck shop is opened!

Up until fairly recently, there wasn't a formal or devotional aspect to Youth Club. However, for a while the leaders have been praying before the start of each session, asking for God's blessing upon the work we do in our local community. We have decided to introduce short sessions to introduce our young people to the basic concepts and ideas of Christianity and the church. For example, Andy has led a session including a modernised version of the parable of the Good Samaritan.

We are blessed in that the children who attend have listened carefully, and seemed to take on board at least some of what we have taught them. We were pleased that so many have also taken part in the recent Holiday Club.

In many cases it was an unfamiliar setting to them, yet they have willingly entered into the spirit of the half term week and have taken part in all the activities offered by Holiday Club. One of our younger ones almost remembered the Memory Verse in full each day!

It was also encouraging that seven of these children came to the Sunday morning service for the first time. They have expressed an interest in coming back to church each week, and one of them has also told us he is thinking of being baptised. We would like to thank all the people at Wonford church for being so supportive and for giving us a foundation upon which we can further advance Christ's kingdom amongst our estate, and we pray that we continue to be rewarded and blessed doing our sometimes challenging but always worthwhile work each Wednesday evening.

Pursuing God's Heart - December 2nd

The monthly Prayer Fellowship already exists for a purpose of praying together for the life of the Church and for people's needs, on the evening of the first Thursday in the month.

Over the next four months it will take the form of a series of evenings of prayer and exploration which Mark and Heather Davies will lead.

The first one is at 7.30 pm on Thursday December 2nd and the theme will be 'Worship - God is worth it'.

We truly welcome people who may not be regular members of this group already. Whatever your other commitments, at church and away from it, we encourage you to share this particular initiative. It will be 'naturally supernatural', because we value normality and low-key approaches and we also value really seeking God's presence.

Rev Mark Davies

VENTURE FX A NEW INITIATIVE IN METHODISM

This short article continues the occasional series from the Exeter Methodist Circuit aimed at informing local church members about current Circuit business and initiatives. Here Jon Curtis tells us about Venture FX.

Venture FX is a recent innovation by the Methodist Church, which aims to reach those who are un-churched, particularly within the 18-35 age range. Venture FX is based upon the principles of 'Fresh Expressions' of church, by which we are not held to traditional versions of congregations and worship, but are willing to make Church in ways that are different. Some examples of Fresh Expressions might include Café Church (where a meeting is based around discussion in a café setting) or Messy Church (where activities, worship and a meal together are all part of a service). Fresh Expressions has had success at bringing those who were uninterested in traditional styles of Church into our community in other ways. Venture FX however is not so concerned with bringing those outside of the church into it, but taking the gospel to where those people are. This does not mean that the inherent values of the gospel, the message or the community are changed, but that they are made available to those who have not engaged with what has come before. The aim is to start 'new Christian community', which is both ecclesiastically and societally valid. It is worth stating that these are not new ideas, and much good work has been done before in these ways, but the Methodist Church has launched this initiative to empower 20 new workers to work in 20 new locations around the UK over the next five years. I have been chosen by this initiative to work as a 'Venture FX Pioneer', and we hope that this will occur in Exeter, starting in the next few months. It is a really exciting prospect, and I for one am particularly grateful to the Circuit for its support in this!

If you are interested in finding out more, you can e-mail me at jon\_shoe@hotmail.com or search "Venture FX" on the Methodist Church website.

Some Christmas Facts

Holly - the ancient Romans used holly as a symbol of friendship. In Norway and Sweden the holly tree is known as the 'Christ-thorn'. The prickly leaves remind us of Christ's crown of thorns. The name 'holly' is thought to be derived from the word 'holy'.

Mistletoe - Christians adopted the mistletoe as a symbol of love, and reminds us that Jesus taught us to love others as ourselves.

Christmas Crib - at Roman winter festivals, clay dolls were sold in the streets of Rome to be given as presents. When many Romans became Christians, they made dolls to represent Mary and Joseph, and figures for the nativity. The most famous crib scene was that of St Francis of Assisi, the good saint who was kind to animals. He wanted people to understand how hard it was to live in a poor manner, so he arranged a real live scene with real people and animals.

Christmas Pudding - this was originally called 'plum pudding' as it was made with prunes which are dried plums. Today we use currants, raisins and sultanas but the breadcrumbs, eggs and spices are the same as they have always been

Mince Pies - these were once called mutton pies as they were made from finely chopped or minced mutton. They used to be oval shaped as a reminder of Christ's crib. People ate them silently and thought about the infant Jesus, which maybe the reason why some people today make a silent wish when they take their first bite. The first mince pies had pastry figures of baby Jesus on them and when Oliver Cromwell ruled the country it was against the law to eat mince pies as it was not thought respectful to Jesus.

Thank you to Pat Lowans for the above facts.

CELEBRATING ADVENT

Check out the Methodist website's Advent and Christmas pages at <http://www.methodist.org.uk/advent>. It is full of ideas, resources and material for worship.

Currently there's a new Christmas hymn and Paperless Christmas - a road movie about the adventures of Mary and Joseph.

Also ...

From 1 December you can follow a day-by-day account of a nativity play on Twitter and Facebook. Known as the Natwivity (<http://natwivity.com/>), it retells the 2,000 year-old story of the birth of Jesus. Each day different members of the cast will tweet a 140-character update. They include Joseph, Mary, the shepherds, the three wise men and King Herod.

The Natwivity will give this famous story an immediate, real-life feel, transforming followers from people 2,000 years ago to friends of the user, who are going through the drama now. Followers will be able to read Mary's angst as she tries to come to terms with the birth of her child, and hear from the stunned shepherds after their encounter with an angel.

FAIR FIR TREES

Do you know that it is now possible to purchase fairly-traded Christmas trees? Growers in Denmark, in partnership with Fairwind, a small company in the UK, have developed Fair Trees, campaigning to raise awareness and improve the conditions of workers in Georgia who pick the majority of the seeds from which Nordmann Fir Christmas trees are grown.

A BBC documentary highlighting the issues will be broadcast this month.

To show your support, order your tree from Fairwind at <http://www.fairwindonline.com/>

MOMENTUM BOWS OUT WITH A ROAD TRIP

After five years of news telling and story sharing, the Methodist publication Momentum reaches its final edition this month. To mark the occasion, editor Laurence Wareing visited some of the projects featured in previous editions, and other stories offer updates on the work undertaken by Momentum's partner organisations - Action for Children, LWPT, MHA and MRDF.

We share examples of imaginative discipleship ? initiatives for young adults, children, overseas partnership and the care of older people. Read, also, ideas for how to make Advent a more meaningful, Christ-centred time.

There's something for your newsletter, website and personal reflection in the final Momentum. Read it at <http://www.methodist.org.uk/>

SINGING THE FAITH, TELLING THE STORY

A website is offering a new insight into the story behind the new Methodist hymn collection, Singing the Faith.

Visitors to www.singingthefait.org.uk can read about the journey from the initial proposal for a new collection through to the work now being done to launch the Singing the Faith collection in June 2011. They can take a peek inside the collection at the full list of hymns and songs, check out the online users guide and read John Wesley's rules for singing.

Anyone can also now take advantage of the pre-publication discounts on Singing the Faith. These include a saving of £5 on the full music edition, £2.50 on the words edition and £5 on the electronic words edition. Discounts are available when ordering direct from Methodist Publishing at <http://www.methodistpublishing.org.uk/>.

People can also pre-order the free Singing the Faith sampler, which will be published in January 2011.
