A Message From The Minister

Dear Friends,

“Christ has no hands but ours”. I know these are well meaning words, but really.... In the eighteenth century, a school of thought known as Deism held that God created the world and then left it to it's own devices, refusing to interfere any further. If we say, ‘Christ has no hands but ours’, we're being modern day Deists, giving up on God and relying on our own efforts. This doesn't get us very far and won't do. In fact, one very key reason for the decline of the Church in our part of the world is that we have jettisoned the supernatural, Spirit-led Christianity of the New Testament in favour of a managerial, human centred faith in which God is asked to bless whatever we decide to do.

I used the word ‘supernatural’ just then, and some of you will have frowned or looked puzzled. Surely talk of the supernatural belongs to the lunatic fringe of the Church? Well, I'm simply using the word to mean that which is beyond our everyday experience, that which comes from outside our everyday world of things and places that we can see. In the New Testament Church, people expected God to be tangibly and dramatically present in their midst. In growing churches, even today, there is an emphasis on encountering the living God in worship, a sense of being open to the Divine in our midst.

Too often, the contemporary Church has been obsessed with being relevant. If only we can show that we're relevant to people's actual lives, goes the mantra, our churches will grow. No. Our churches will grow if they help people to encounter God, in all His irresistible power and love, and be transformed by that encounter. The world doesn't need our relevance. The world needs us to be a gateway to God. Let's pray for that. Let's desire that above all else. Christ has hands – and arms. Let's pray for the world, as well as us, to be swept up in them.

With every blessing

Ben Haslam

Do You Know Your Carbon Footprint?

World Environment Day is held on June 5th each year. It is a day designed by the United Nations to raise awareness and to invite us to take action. You may already be striving to do your bit. Perhaps you recycle, try to buy eco-friendly products or are cutting down on single use plastics. As God's stewards of this precious world, what more can we do? A good place to start is knowing our carbon footprint.

Our carbon footprint is a measure of the total emissions caused by us as individuals. These greenhouse gases are detrimental to our planet and are driving climate change. The size of our carbon footprint is dependent on our lifestyle choices. By understanding the impact of these choices, we can identify areas where we can improve. If you have access to the internet, you can find various carbon footprint calculators. The one that I favour is <https://footprint.wwf.org.uk>. Once you've calculated your carbon footprint, it provides you with useful tips on how you can reduce it.

Here are some ways that we can reduce our carbon footprint:

1. Eat more plant based meals
2. Unplug your devices when not in use
3. Eat locally produced food
4. Lift share, walk more or use public transport
5. Wash clothes at a lower temperature and line-dry your clothes
6. Try to avoid purchasing items in excessive plastic packaging
7. Avoid fast throwaway fashion - buy items to last
8. Consume less - simply buy less stuff
9. Switch to a green energy supplier
10. Compost your food waste

There is growing focus on the problem of climate change and it can feel overwhelming. However, if we all do our bit, we can make a difference.

New Pastoral Secretary Needed

Welcome! – That's what we all want to feel at Wonford Methodist Church – but how to make it happen? You're already reading one of the ways to do this – through our Contact newsletter each month – given you by one of our 14 Pastoral Visitors. It is they who give you yours, or pop it through your letterbox, or email it to you.

It takes a bit of organising; it means a list of everyone which is kept secure; and it works methodically and well, most of the time, within the framework devised by previous Pastoral secretaries at Wonford. Please think if you could offer to be our next Pastoral secretary when Margretta 'sits down' from this role on 30 April 2019, and find out more from her. Let one of the stewards or Margretta know if you are interested in taking up this very important role.

Prayer Focus for May

Pray Without Ceasing!

Please pray each day for all who are leading worship each Sunday and those leading Bible studies, Messy church and Girl's Brigade and Mum's and Tots.

After the rather busy time in April, May seems relatively quiet month. May 30th is Ascension Day when we remember our Lord being taken up into Heaven to sit at God's right hand ready. Why not take this opportunity to pray for all who serve us at Wonford. Pray for Ben, Local Preachers, Worship Team & Worship Group who lead us week by week. Pray for our Communion Stewards & Church Stewards. Those who come up with wonderful flower displays each week, those who make our teas & coffee, those who cater for Messy Church & many other events. Pray for Bronwen & those who may offer help to keep our church clean, tidy & welcoming.

This month in our Country, at the time of writing it is not known what our situation will be with Europe but our land has become very divided. Pray for healing & restoration of the United Kingdom. Pray for the Police Service, Fire & ambulance services & our NHS.

In the wider world pray for all the Countries that have suffered natural disasters. Mozambique, Zimbabwe, Malawi are the places we have heard about but other Countries like Haiti. Also pray for New Zealand following the recent terrorist attack.

May you all be richly blessed as you pray for all the activities at Wonford, surrounding area & the wider world.

If you have anything that you would like included please let Julie Rothwell know so that I can include it here.

Our Prayer Phone Link

Should you, or those you know, wish to be supported in prayer, the first contact is now Rev Alan Rothwell (01392 926840). Your request will then be passed to members of the Prayer Link who will pray for your need. If the first contact is unavailable, please contact Margretta Bowstead (01392 437329) or Rose Smith (01404 510853)

After Service Prayer Support

This is available in the Quiet Room on Sunday mornings. Two members of the Prayer Team will be available to pray with you.
